In that instance his request was granted, but only on condition that the amount asked for should be paid in the form of a check, endorsed to his wifes order and given to the executive officer to mail. Can any officer doubt that many self-respecting mechanics would be deterred from enlisting by the knowledge that they might be exposed to such humiliations Does any officer believe that the average recruit enters the service with any doubt as to his right to draw his pay in the same manner as do other freeborn Americans If the department has the legal right to withhold the pay of enlisted men, has it not an equal right to withhold the pay of officers, and does any officer believe that he would accept such an order without vigorous protest and appeal Certainly not. If we aim...
