Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Do you want to be the Salt of the Earth and the Light of the World? Do you want to be someone who transforms lives and organisations because of the uniqueness that you bring to your relationships and work? The 1001 Leadership Tips series is meant to equip and empower you with profound insights on the character, attitude and the heart of a leader who inspires, motivates and transforms lives. Series one provides some tips on leadership life skills that go beyond technical abilities and classroom teaching. It provides handy tips and insights for those who want to light up their world and add value to the lives of people. You will get maximum transformation through this booklet by reflecting on each tip and putting it into practice daily. Rarely does one find a collection that cuts across the whole spectrum of leadership (business, church, family, and society) as documented by the author in this piece. Reading through these tips makes me conscious of my role as a leader and how I need to do more. Professor Sylvanus Ikhide, University of Stellenbosch Business School, South Africa. Adeola Akintoye has dedicated her life to making a positive impact on her world through her writing, teaching, mentoring and coaching. She is the founder of the We CAN Leadership Institute and has worked in various leadership roles in a career spanning 20 years.
