The train started a second after the two almost breathless girls entered the half-empty chair car. They came in with a rush, and barely found their seats and got settled in them before the easily rolling train had pulled clear of the station and the yards. Back to dear old Glenwood School, Doro! cried Tavia Travers, fairly hugging her more sober companion. How do you feel about it? De-lighted, Miss, laughed Dorothy Dale. After our trying experiences in New York--Well! a country life is strenuous enough for me, I guess. But we did have some fun, Doro. And how we got the best of that hateful Akerson man! I just hate that fellow. I could beat him! Your feeling is not scriptural, groaned Dorothy, though her eyes twinkled. Don t you know, if you are struck on one cheek you should turn the other also? But suppose you re hit on the nose? demanded Tavia. One hasn t two noses!.
