WRITING THE ICON OF THE HEART: IN SILENCE BEHOLDING

Wipf Stock Publishers, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Synopsis: The subtitle of Maggie Ross s new book captures its essence, for it is about silence and our need to behold God. Beholding is a notion that we are in danger of losing. It is often lost in translation, even by the NRSV and the Jerusalem Bible. Beholding needs to be recovered both in theology and practice. Ross is very aware of poor talkative Christianity. There is a twofold plea to enter into silence--for lack of silence erodes our humanity--and to behold the radiance of God. This is a book full of deep questioning and the testing of our assumptions. Throughout there is a great love for the world and for our humanity, accompanied by sadness that we are so easily distracted . . . We are invited into a silence that is not necessarily an absence of noise, but is a limitless interior space. Ancient texts are used in new and exciting ways, and many of our worship practices are challenged. She is in no doubt that the glory of the human being is the beholding of God. --adapted from a review in The Church Times (London) by Canon David Adam. Endorsements: Maggie Ross has established a very distinctive voice in writing about the life of the spirit. Richly resourced from the historic tradition, but constantly pressing the most radical question of all, the question of how we can speak of a reality that requires us to let go of controls, images, systems, even--or especially-- spiritual experiences, this book is a welcome addition to a series of deeply focused and challenging works from a very serious and substantial thinker. --Rowan Williams, Cambridge University L...
