

Rejecting Jesus: Why You Should (Paperback)

By Mr Neil Robinson

Createspace, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Rejecting Jesus: Why You Should , is a sparkling series of irreverent, funny and, yes, blasphemous blog posts from the successful blog by Neil Robinson. With their satirical pictures - a popular feature of the blog - they re now collected together under one cover for the first time. (A few have previously been available in print). Each serves as a little antidote to the virus that holds millions in its delusional thrall. With over 2 billion adherents worldwide, Christianity is still the most popular and insidious belief system in the world. But it makes truth claims and promises it cannot and has never met and offers a perspective of reality based on fantasy figures and scenarios for which no evidence exists. It contradicts almost everything science tells us about reality and asks its adherents to accept its propositions on faith , without question or the exercise of critical faculties. It expects them too to spread the virus whenever and wherever they can. The author knows this because he was once a Christian. He knows from the inside what Christians believe, having bought into...
