Excerpt from The Nameless Hero: And Other Poems At last our serried ranks disorderIng broke Never since Bull Run s bloody fight was fought Has there been such a sanguine havoc wrought. He ceased and on his master bent one look No more than that his servile soul could brook. Oh, horrid was the scowl of wrath and hate That on his plotting leader s features sate! Not like his vassal s face, revealing mind, Or giving play to devils that lurked behind; But as the mad volcano s lava - tide.
