Alice is a little girl with very good manners and always eager to help others. But her cat is not so nice and well behaved! Each time Alice does anything good the cat tries to spoil everything. almost always. Beautifully illustrated alphabet book with professional watercolor images easy to read 26 short stories to each letter (don t they all!) with simple rhyme throughout the perfect way to teach your children the alphabet letters and first words in a fun manner special bonus - included free coloring sheets of the character, the alphabet letters and its words extend a simple book reading into an interactive activity Follow the little girl Alice as she makes an apple pie for her dad to make him fatty and happy. Start the morning with Alice brushing the teeth to her bear. Dream! Pretend to be a cowgirl riding a horse or a queen ruling a kingdom but having a traditional five o clock tea time break. Or play a Violin like great Vivaldi (though the cat is not a fan of this music at all)! All written through a simple rhyme, this is a book your children will want to hear again and again.
