Riverside, New Jersey, U.S.A.: Simon & Schuster, 2007. Hardcover. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. 1st Edition. 2007. Hardcover. First ed. First Printing. BRAND NEW HARDCOVER BOOK--UREAD AND PRACTICALLY NEVER EVEN OPENED. Author's premier novel which received critical acclaim. "Our unnamed narrator, a journalist, picks up the story of his three former classmates from Yale as they're all nearing thirty. David and Samona have been together since junior year, and have now settled into the routine of being married. Ethan--whose talent and ease at life has never been enough to sustain him, who is looking for something darker and more uncertain--first captivated our narrator during college when they struck up a special relationship. As our narrator and Ethan became closer, our narrator's love for the beautiful, exotic Samona never waned. Who's happy? Not Ethan, with his success as a designer and his magnetic sexuality. Not David, who wonders whether a better life lies ahead in the suburbs or behind on the track field. Not Samona, to whom David returns home nightly from his hedge fund job with nothing left for her. When Ethan and Samona come together during a gallery opening, they meet each others needs. Only later, after David commissions Ethan to design some conference rooms at his firm and a secret triangle is formed, does our narrator tie all the pieces together." A novel that presents characters still quite young who still feel their dreams and sexuality, but not in the very first flush of youth. They have hidden facets to their lives, secrets which slowly come to the fore and do so explosively. BRAND NEW HARDCOVER BOOK. GIFT-GIVING CONDITION. Mint in Mint Dust Jacket.
