220 Publishing, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Business of Love is a handbook to help women succeed in their relationships and provide an indepth look at a woman s readiness to commit to a healthy and rewarding relationship. As in business, certain strategies, behaviors and styles of resolving challenges will determine if one will succeed or fail. The Business of Love will enable you to look beyond the realms of romance and fantasy to explore the truths that lies within you. Am I really ready to be in a committed relationship? Is this a venture that I am not ready to commit to? Should I wait? With this book, you will be inspired and empowered to know what you are really made of inside, and how you will impact your significant other. Seth Francois is a specialist in conflict resolution, group dynamics, and building trust. Seth believes if a person releases their negative ideals and perceptions, along with personal let downs, people can gain opportunity to establish successful relationships. Concentrating on identifying significant events in our past that trigger emotional responses in our current relationships is paramount. He believes his debut The Business of Love will play a pivotal role in building a successful relationship that is solid through self-exploration, and awareness. The author has had a long term commitment to building productive relationships helping people meet their maximum potential. He has excelled at creating valuable relationships in the work environment and has received a number of awards and honorable mentions. The Business of Love applies those successful concepts to help women increase understanding of self and understanding of how men view relationships. This book was written for women who are willing to grow and are willing to take control...
