Racing to Joy Press LLC, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A young girl learns about distance and traveling when her Grandpa flies in an airplane from Kentucky to Oklahoma. In this book Allyson learns about airplanes, and abstract ideas like time and distance in a fun and entertaining way. This is an Early Concept Book for early readers. Early Concept Books come complete with discussion questions in the appendix to help parents guide their children in getting the most from each book before, during, and after reading. Linda M. Penn holds a Masters Degree and Rank I Degree in Elementary Education from the University of Louisville. She taught Kindergarten through third grade for 21 years in public schools. During her teaching career and as a mother, she learned what kinds of books children love to read. Her goal is to write books that children will read over and over again--books that stir their imagination. Is Kentucky in the Sky? was the first book written by Penn and published by Racing to Joy Press. Her next books, Hunter and the FastCar Trophy Race, and Clayton Makes New Friends, will be released by Racing to Joy Press in 2012.
