Dom goes on the adventure of a lifetime to many different places around the world to document the supernatural world of ghosts, angels, demons, monsters, and other unexpected creatures. He also encounters supernatural acts of love and kindness on his journey, while also experiencing love and romance on a personal level. The action starts off right away in the book, and each chapter is filled with excitement and adventure, as well as many surprises, while the interesting characters in our story (Dom and his new found love), wrestle with principalities and powers upsetting the powers of darkness. Dom, who is a very nominal Christian at first, grows in his knowledge of spiritual warfare. He learns to listen to the Lord through God's Word, taking on a Biblical approach, while confronting and defeating the powers of darkness, using many powerful ways given to him by the Lord.
