

Going Home: Book 3 Oregon Historicals (Volume 3)

By Rain Trueax

Seven Oaks. Paperback. Condition: New. 306 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. Its 1865 and the Civil War has just come to an agonizing end-- even impacting far off Oregon with its destructive divisiveness. With a loving family, successful businesses, and active theater life, Raine Stevens has all she could want except a love of her own. She prefers life without the sacrifices that kind of love requires. Only one man has ever tempted her to believe otherwise, and he went off to fight the war. He left and never wrote. And then, Jed Hardman is back, but its too late for them. She wont leave Portland for a wilderness ranch on the John Day River. Shes worked too hard for what she has. Besides, hes way too much the laird in the way he dominates all around him. She sends him off with no hope for a future together. After Raine learns her seemingly successful life has been more a cage than a secure nest, she decides to leave Portland. She could go many places, but the only one that will help her find out if she and Jed have a future is the Hardman Ranch. Jed is grateful...
