Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Since 1985, the General Social Survey (GSS) studies have been revealing a decline in friendships. Twenty-seven years later since this study, our world is in even more need of unity with countries in conflict and our uncertain economy. This book is a crucial part in helping people with personal and global transformation. The Friendship Effect is a two-part book that will teach you all you need to know to be a true friend and to create long-lasting genuine friendships. Part one focuses on being a friend to yourself and living a life based on what makes you happy, which will inevitably attract more friends your way. Part two spotlights the secrets to creating and sustaining lifelong friendships while showing why and how friendships are lifesaving and world changing. The secrets of friendship, which will be revealed in-depth in this section, are: Refrain from judging. Be a good listener. Give your friends advice the safe and real way. What to do when meeting someone for the first time through Magical Ease. Be an effective communicator. Retrieve information instead of perceiving it. Be thoughtful. Solutions Focus Friendships: a framework that concentrates on the solution versus the problem. Always have high expectations in your friendships. Keep your friendships healthy. Keep your life balanced with friendships: Portfolio of Passions. Make friends with creative techniques. The Trigger Effect These points may appear simple or common knowledge. I assure you that the unique strategies you will learn about each point will make you an invaluable friend. An array of studies and life-changing programs from gurus from around the world are also embedded throughout this book to assist you in creating a life that you are passionate about while...
