Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The University Record, Vol. 6: October, 1900 The creative side of the University has been shown by many lectures and addresses all over the State, hundreds of articles in the periodicals and a number of books of an educational character. I think that this brief outline is sufficient to prove the position taken by me that this University has been a great factor in the educational development of the State. Let us again look at the matter from the side of dollars and cents. What sort of a financial investment has this been for the State? Even a brief examination will show that no other investment has paid the State so well. If we consider that fifty students a year have remained in the State who would otherwise have gone beyond its bounds for their education, and that fifteen have been drawn to the State - very moderate estimates, both of them then these two elements alone mean a balance over all appropriations from the State, of $175,000 for the twenty-five years. Add to this $125,000 in gifts of money and in buildings and we have a sum total of - a grand return for the meagre appropriations - the smallest appropriation given by any Southern State to its University.
