

Pepper's Ghost (Paperback)

By Mark R Anderson

Blue Wrangler Productions, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you could live one day over, which day would it be? The first. or the 555th? A young Wall Street lawyer receives a cryptic email from his estranged father who was killed in an aircraft accident working as a military contractor in Iraq. The message unlocks three secrets: .What he was really working on-- a top-secret and highly controversial intelligence-gathering technology that replays events from the past; .Why he was really doing it-- to relive the day he lost the love of his life; .And his final wish--- to meet her again. For the first time. Pepper's Ghost is a high-tech love story spanning three continents, three wars, and three decades during which we have witnessed the computerization of human experience, and watched things once thought impossible become yesterday's news. Love stories are about doing the impossible, about seeing through the mirror darkly. This is the story of how one man did that--turned back the clock-- twice. Here's what readers are saying about Pepper's Ghost Sparkling dialogue, fast-paced action, and a mind-bending premise. -Rozsa Gaston, The...
