Farrar, Straus Giroux Inc, United States, 1999. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Formerly Poet Laureate to Queen Elizabeth II, the late Ted Hughes (1930-98) is recognized as one of the few contemporary poets whose work has mythic scope and power. And few episodes in postwar literature have the legendary stature of Hughes s romance with, and marriage to, the great American poet Sylvia Plath. The poems in Birthday Letters are addressed (with just two exceptions) to Plath, and were written over a period of more than twenty-five years, the first a few years after her suicide in 1963. Some are love letters, others haunted recollections and ruminations. In them, Hughes recalls his and Plath s time together, drawing on the powerful imagery of his work--animal, vegetable, mythological--as well as on Plath s famous verse. Countless books have discussed the subject of this intense relationship from a necessary distance, but this volume--at last--offers us Hughes s own account. Moreover, it is a truly remarkable collection of pems in its own right.
