Once a faithful governor of the province of Paceland under King Caelestis, Babur in his hate and greed is pursuing his ambition to possess it all and inflict the most pain on his enemy - Caelestis. The entire kingdom in their love and loyalty to the king, rises up to rescue the only child and long prophesied king of the peaceful kingdom. The operation is undertaken by the Kings most trusted friends and warriors driving Babur from the land. But Babur in his anger at Caelestis wont let it go, bides his time and returns with a vengeance, enslaving the people, building his armies and doing everything in his power to find the child affianced to the High Prince, now grown into the valiant and gracious young man who is the promise of hope for all the land. The child Johanna and her parents see their home and happiness slowly broken apart by the encroaching evil of Babur. The parents decide to travel to Caelestis, the father Paul to join the kings...
