Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 293 pages. On Minnesotas bluff overlooking the serene Mississippi River valley and Lake Pepins placid waters, Leaner Institutes fenced-in compound offered a sanctuary of security and peace for its workers. Until one idyllic June afternoon when something was released inside the perimeter. Then people began to disappear. Within an hour, the compound felt more like an apocalyptic internment camp. Yet, at the same time, the eight survivors are faced with their own revelations about themselves, their relationships with each other and with a ravenous entity.
