Salt Pepper Cooking (Paperback)

By James Haller

Riverrun Select, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Chef James Haller, the chef and owner of the renowned Blue Strawberry restaurant in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, serves up a perfect blend of humor, nostalgia, and wisdom in this delightful culinary memoir - the chronicle of a lifetime of cooking. July 29, 2015, Kirkus Review: With these funny stories, an award-winning chef reflects on the formative roles of food, family, and friendship in his life. Former executive chef and owner of Portsmouth, New Hampshire s Blue Strawberry restaurant, Haller (Vie de France, 2002, etc.) grew up during the Depression, a poor kid in a Chicago suburb. His working-class extended family and Old World neighborhoods inspired a fascination with eclectic food combinations. Whether watching his Grandma Hazel dispatch a barnyard chicken by spinning it overhead like David with his sling or splashing a little Benedictine Brandy on fried eggs after I heard Betty Grable order eggs benedict between dance numbers, it s clear that his insatiable curiosity about food began early. A young Italian girl, Louisa, became Haller s childhood friend and introduced him to cannoli, which easily eclipsed his grandmother s tapioca...
