Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. What s behind any successful business and/or workplace? It s quality leaders that can relate to their employees and use pro-active leadership for accomplishing goals. Yet, being managers in the workplace can produce regular challenges, so author James Fantauzzo offers daily leadership advice for readers through his new pocket guide, On the Shoulders of Leaders. Utilizing his management consultant experience, James presents successful leadership concepts to aid those in leadership to solve workplace conflicts, boost employee morale and establish a positive environment for all. Focus is also given toward developing teamwork in the workplace and trust-building relationships at work, to training new employees and short long-term planning for the company. James lets these points of advice be recognized through example case studies of real-life, anonymous companies in the guide. As leaders learn how to positive role models in the workplace, making a difference to others, success can be achieved for all.
