Sometime it's easy - smooth and happy and putting a smile on your face. Justice stroked a calloused thumb over Garrett's cheek. You make me wish I was a better man, butterscotch. Garrett closed his eyes and leaned into Justice's hand, How could you be? You're already perfect in my eyes. Sometimes it's hard - rough and angry and making the tears fall. You're going to get through this babe, he whispered into JD's hair. How do you know? Brent squeezed his eyes shut as pain lanced through his heart at those words, Because, he whispered as he pressed his lips to JD's neck, because I'm going to be here. I'm going to hold you when you can't stand on your own. I'm going to fight for you when your demons become too strong. I'm going to love you when only darkness fills your heart. And I'm going to keep you here, safe, when the storm inside of you is trying to sweep you away. And sometimes...
