They called out the Telephone Operators in the Manitoba Government Telephone System. They called out the Postal Workers and all the Employees in His Majesty s Post Office. They called out all the workers in the bakeries and dairies of the City and their deliveries. They called out all the caretakers and passenger elevator operators in all the office buildings and residential blocks of the City. They called out workers in retail and wholesale establishments dealing with the necessities of life throughout the City. They called out the carters and delivery men of these establishments and of the railways and express companies. They called out the employees of the Winnipeg Electric Railway Company. On the third day of the strike they succeeded in calling out sufficient workers in the newspapers to prevent publication of any paper in Winnipeg. They called...
