Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Mesopotamia the Daily Mail Inquiry at Gone Mr. Bonar La , The Daily Mail, Inquiry at Baghdad Mesopotamia is a millstone hung round the neck of the British taxpayer, and until it is cast off millions of pounds must be sunk yearly in trying to support a feeble and inefficient Arab Government. We have created a native State there (called officially Iraq) and provided it with a cumbersome and costly organisation in which British military and civil elements are intermingled and intended to serve as a prop to the new Government until it can stand alone. A dispassionate survey of present conditions shows that the results so far obtained do not justify the time and money lavished upon this enterprise. We are spending this year, according to figures secured from British official sources in Baghdad, Of this amount nearly is for the maintenance of the British civil administration in Mesopotamia and the remainder for the Military and Air Forces there. No less than is being spent in the country for the upkeep of troops and the construction of new and costly bases. Yet our aim is ostensibly only to stabilise Iraq, (mesopotamia) as an independent Power. We are merely the advisers and not the dominant authority in Mesopotamia. The outlook is far from encouraging. There is an artificial kingdom ruled by an unpopular King, Feisal, and a doubtful Ministry, with out the confidence of the people and dependent on a native population which is either suspicious or apathetic. The King does not really trust us or his Ministers. The people trust neither King nor Ministers. The outstanding result of two years of so - called self-government is an empty treasury and...
