By Blair London

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 308 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. Have you ever wondered what happens to missing children? Are they dead? Are they still alive somewhere? This book will give you an insight as to where they might be—in your basement, the house next door, a vacant building. You should be more aware of the possibilities after reading this book. A FEW TEASERS: It's just not every day you find a girl as pretty as you are in the library looking up child trafficking. Claire instantly felt sick to her stomach. Child prostitution rings! It's all so real, and it's all happening, here, of all places! There, there is a man in my house who has been holding some kids captive. Those kidnappings! The child trafficking circles! He did it all! He had this full gang of guys that helped him kidnap the kids and transport them from one place to another. They had taken care of Sam's companion, the one they found in the neighboring house. She was shocked to see people protesting outside her house against child trafficking and shouting. Put the criminal behind the bars. Put the...
