Given six months to live and no immediate family to support him, Vaidya, a first generation Indian- American, ventures a pathless taken and explores alternative treatments throughout India for his metastatic stage IV cancer diagnosis. The journey starts as a prelude to his death but ends up giving birth to his second life. This is a story about resilience, believing in oneself, trusting in humanity and not letting judgment stop anyone from trying anything. It goes beyond any disease. Its about appreciating each moment, truly living, and winning in life by finally taking time to get back in touch with nature.
