To one class of people a summer vacation means a round of gayety and excitement, at fashionable resorts and elegant hotels, with ease and luxury for accompaniments. To another class it means a quiet sojourn by lake, or stream, or woodland glen, in company with Nature and her choicest works, and far from the madding crowd. Between these two extremes we find every variety of tastes, some of which are met by a combination of scenery, or a tour from one resort to another, with sight-seeing as the end to be gained. Whatever may be the preferences of the summer traveler as to scenery, sport..
