They were stolen again in 1791. In the early 1900s they were stolen for a third time and ended up in the possession of the Masserias a newly formed mafia family vying for the power to control the streets of NYC. This power struggle resulted in a raging war between the Masseria and Maranzano crime families. It was a time when the Sicilian Black Hand was being phased out and replaced by the new, emerging, American mafia families. It was also a time when the Crown Jewels of France disappeared and were never seen again, until they were stolen for a fourth time. WHO IS THE MAFIA There are some who believed that the words Mafia and La Cosa Nostra applied specifically to the Sicilians. These words have been broken down into Morte Alla Francia Italia Anela. The word mafia has been interpreted as death to the French, who during the 12th century invaded and occupied the island. Then, during the 13th century, Sicily was again invaded by the Germans, Greeks, Austrians and Spanish. After living in fear for hundreds of years Sicily emerged with the most active, controlled and regimented criminal organization known to man. The mafia adapted a family concept based on honor, respect, fear, obedience, silence, and numerous other principals the basis of which was loyalty. Problems that arose during this time often resulted in a vengeance or a vendetta. The problems were usually compromised by a knife or rope, and in later years it became the lupara or shotgun. THE SITUATION During the late 1800s and early 1900s as America was being shaped, it...
