Some are openly rebellious. Others are just passively indifferent to the things of God. If you are the parent of a prodigal, chances are you feel heartbroken. You've put your life on hold. You've tried everything, but nothing works. You're weary of the gut-wrenching pain, and you've run out of answers. Judy Hampton has both lived as a prodigal and experienced the trials of attempting to help a prodigal son. With warmth and compassion, she offers solid advice on how to stop enabling bad behavior, give your child to God, and get on with your life.
