

Value and the Invariable Unit of Value (Paperback)

By Wm A Whittick

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the INTRODUCTION. The importance of our subject cannot be over-estimated. Value has been called the corner-stone of economics, the fundamental idea, the dominant category of political economy, and, unless it be definitely and correctly determined, that science in its entirety is like a house built upon quicksand; it has no solid, abiding foundations. Until the commerce of mankind, -until the product of industry can be weighed and balanced in the scales of justice, society in its true sense is impossible, and must inevitably become an organized institution for picking pockets, such as it is, to a great extent, today. The lack of equity and justice in the processes of production and distribution so painfully manifest at the present time, and so fruitful in evil, has its source in this one fact more than any other, -that there is no just standard measure or unit of value; that which is used as such being simply a disturber of values and a tool of exploitation and injustice through monopoly. The wide interest manifested in our subject is a remarkable fact of...
