Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Oration Delivered at the Centennial Celebration of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence: At Charlotte, N. C., May 20, 1875 My Countrymen: Being a descendant, on one side of the house, from the Old North State, and having spent several years of my boyhood under her classic oaks in old Orange, my feelings kindle with more than ordinary interest on this proud occasion. Thousands of hearts, familiar with the cradle songs of Carolina, far beyond the blue mountains in the West, now pulsate in unison with your own. Gladly have I come from the Great Daughter, Tennessee, to bear her kindly greetings, and to mingle her voice in your rejoicing. The voice of her Legislature and Historical Society was but the voice of the State, in the expression of her interest in this celebration. Children of Carolina! Sons of Freedom! Patriots of our Common Country! This celebration is the festival of the heart upon the glorious memories of the past. That people have far sunk in degeneracy, and have become as the dry bones in the valley, when they feel no stir of inspiration, as the images of their illustrious fathers are passing before their eyes. The heart, not the head of a nation, is the fountain of patriotism, bravery and virtue. The emotional nature of a people, like the sea, contains the saline virtues which purify and preserve the State. The living age is but a pensioner on the works and wisdom of the past. It has been the custom of all civilized nations to celebrate the ancestral deeds and virtues to stimulate the rivalry of the future generations. The ancient Greeks erected monuments and...
