Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Legislative Library and Archives for 1972: Including the Reports of the Department of Health and Social Development Library, and the Director of Libraries Under the Public Libraries Act Growing use of its resources was evident in the increase in the total number of requests for information directed to the Library. The queries ranged from simple reference questions to complex problems involving research and full bibliographic documentation. The staff responded to more than reference queries in 1972 compared to over in 1971. In addition to direct service the library supplied 374 interlibrary loan requests from other libraries in 1972 as compared with 327 in 1971; in 1972 the Library borrowed from other libraries 352 items compared to 294 in 1971. Current information reflected many significant public issues with which the federal, provincial and municipal governments are concerned and covering such diverse subjects as abortion, agricultural prices and income, community centres, day care facilities, dissemination of pornography, federal and provincial elections, firearms control, foreign ownership and investments, government ownership, housing for low-income groups, labour-management relations, mass media...
