ROC, New York, 2005. Mass Market Paperback. Condition: New. First Edition. In downtown Manhattan, a rising young painter is haunted by disturbing dreams. Her walls are covered in her own scrawls: "Release the boy" . . . In small-town Minnesota, a teenage orphan struggles with a knowledge beyond his years - and a destiny he wants no part of . . . In California, people are tuning in to a new underground rock band. Young and old, hipsters and hippies, all are falling under the spell of its wildly charismatic lead singer. Her voice breaks down all barriers - including the ones between heaven and hell. . . The fans of Asha are starting to find one another - and the world is running out of time. -- First edition/first printing. Condition is brand spanking new; not a remaindered, library, or book club edition.
