An epic forbidden love story that spans throughout the years of war. We kissed in a way I can only describe as heartbreakingly crazy. And breathed in each others breath for the last time. She sobbed as the station master lowered her down onto the platform, ripping us apart. He blew his whistle as our fingers clawed against the glass to get to one another. It was raw. So raw I can still feel it now. Nell was the Daughter of a wealthy Brigadier. Jack, a poor boy who live on the Brigadiers land. When he had just turned eighteen, he was tasked to pay off the family debt, working the stables. Never did he expect to fall for the girl he thought snooty and rude. But he did. Soon their love was ousted, and the Brigadier forbade Nell from seeing Jack. He made threats, not only against her first love, but his family also. Years later, and trapped in a violent marriage, a soldier is brought through the doors of the hospital where Nell volunteers. A soldier with a...
