HOPE DAWNS ETERNAL: IN A WORLD OF TV SOAPS, THE DEADLIEST DRAMAS ARE UNSCRIPTED (PAPERBACK)

Norse Crone Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Can soap stars live forever? If they re vampires, anything s possible. In the hotbed of intrigue that is daytime television, sometimes the deadliest dramas are unscripted, and passions transcend anything the censors dare allow. Hope Dawns Eternal is the first in a new series of romantic paranormal thrillers set at the fictional QMA television network in New York City. The novel features Jonah McQuarry, the new cop in town on the beloved soap opera Sunlight and Shadow, his lady love Abigail Hastings, and his arch-rival Tony Giordano. Played by the actor Mark Westgate, Jonah is tall and slender, with dark good looks and piercing blue eyes. Thanks to his years on Hope Dawns Eternal, a recently cancelled soap, he already has millions of fans, so the showrunners bring him along to SS when the QMA network replaces Hope with a self-help reality show, Brand New You. His first day on the set, when Jonah meets the raven-haired Abby, the erotic chemistry between them is instantaneous and off the charts. Soon Jonah suspects he knew her in another incarnation, when Mark played a vampire on the long-defunct soap opera Oak Bluff and the actress who played Abby was his leading lady. When the host of Brand New You turns up dead and drained of blood, there s immediate buzz about vampires, and Jonah becomes a prime suspect. Even worse, he begins to suspect himself. He s been having black-outs, with long periods of time he can t account for, and he s developed a ravenous appetite for bloody rare meat. Could the reclusive Mark Westgate be suffering from dissociative identity disorder, and could Jonah be just one of several personas...
