Rogue Phoenix Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Crisis in Community College Leadership: The Phillip Dolly Affair is literary in development but grounded in chaotic community college daily experience. The novel is comic, satiric, quasi-politically correct, edgy, and richly descriptive of community college life, leadership foibles, and cultural themes. This hyperbolic text is entertaining, edifying, and fun. Little community college fiction-comic or otherwise-exists-the authors are fearless in their humorous-and sometimes biting-- analysis of community college culture. The stereotype-busting authors reacquaint readers with the [faded] ideals of the 1960 s social renaissance. While community colleges are currently receiving heightened attention, this novel provides a behind-the-scenes analysis of many whispered truths, those simmering but unspoken workplace issues, behaviors, and machinations nearly every worker [Everyman] in America will recognize.
