I received this revelation: Love is enduring pain, heartaches and wrongs visited on you by people you care about. Forgiveness is actually an expression of love. You need love to forgive. When people you love do wrong to you, in their irrational state, it hurts. It makes you recoil and want to distance yourself from them. But love dictates that you continue to give even when it no longer feels right to give. That is why Jesus Christ said: Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends. (John 15:13). Love is being ready to offer yourself for someone you love, not only when they are good to you, but also when they are not. So bear unfair treatments from loved ones and remain committed to the relationship, while at the same time, committing yourself into God s hand for the saving power of His grace. No other relationship calls for that commitment more than marriage. The Bible says: For it had been granted you on behalf of Christ not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for him. (Philippians 1:29). Jesus Christ also washed the feet of Judas Iscariot at the Last Supper. Love knows no boundaries. Whether it is the love of God for us, or our love for God, or any other --- love is love and operates the same way all the time. There is nothing like different kinds of love . All we have is different kinds of relationships involving love. Whether it is love between a husband and a wife, or between a mother and a son, or between a man and God, or between friends, or...
