Excerpt from Peace or War: An Address on Restoring Peace to Our Borders and to Canada; With Remarks Upon the Elements of War, Useful Reforms, Avoiding Wars, and Enjoying True Peace Let me ask you, were Hancock, Adams, Washington, and all the patriots of our American revolution, rebels and traitors? Were Lafay ette and other patriotic foreigners, lawless rebels and traitors, because they also would hazard their lives and fortunes in that struggle for the rational freedom, equal rights and liberties of all men? Even if it were so, their example and success, and our enjoyment of liberty, peace and prosperity, as the fruits of their united labors, under the special providences of God. May have been the first and continually stimulating causes of the attempted revolution in Canada, and of ti a error, perhaps, of those patriotic citizens of ours (if any there be.) who now stand upon Navy Island ready to bleed and to die with the fugitives, or patriots, of Canada.
