Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Lehigh s Part in the War, Vol. 5: Foreword; Pres; Drinker s Address; Roll of Honor; Letters From the Front; College Activities; Alumni News; November, 1917 What is Lehigh doing in the War? That is the question her Alumni are asking. Well if you look under On the Firing Line you will see what her sons are doing. There by the hundreds you will find the names of Lehigh men in Military or Naval service. Without counting the regular Army officers we number among our Alumni, you will still find that the list covers classes from 1893 to 1921. There are no Lehigh units or batteries. The individual initiative that characterizes our men preclude that possibility. They are not the kind to await being organized and brought together by some one else. They made their own decisions and spread out into every branch of the service. And the list we give is far from complete. The blank form you will find in this copy of the Bulletin will serve you to send in some name that you know of and which you do not find in the list. By the next issue we should have many more names for our Honor Roll. Of course if we were to add the names of Lehigh men who are serving the country in the manufacture of arms, munitions and supplies, the building of ships, or the transportation of men and materials of war we would not have room in this issue to print all the names. For the nature of the training given to Lehigh men naturally has taken them into the occupations where such service is part...
