iUniverse, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Written for people who are sick of thinking about what s in their brains and need a whole new set of ideas and thoughts to overwrite what s already there, Living My Life By the Book contains more than 2,500 jokes and one-liners that will fill readers minds with the thoughts of others that they can t put down, to keep their minds off their own for a while. A book of books that will give you a storied life to think about and not the one you don t like the inevitable ending you see coming for yourself. Willidau has chosen a library full of books to represent his life, so he doesn t have to think about his own storied one. Ken Willidau s philosophy is that anything could have happened so why not just pretend that anything did. Willidau reads into himself all the fiction that would make any non-fiction story blush to make his own reality seem like a happily ever after tale come true. You will be more gripped by this book than the one you ll be white-knuckling as your own plot thickens. Chapters read like books that make a life out of stories that will make it one long sentence to live to the letter. Among them, -My Friend Flicka-, -Of Mice and Men-, -Go Ask Alice-, -Great Expectations-, -I, Robot-, -Old Yeller-, -Far From the Madding Crowd- and -Tales From the Crypt- make a life that s stranger than fiction but better than non-fiction when anything different is better than the same old read on it, now. The day is penned by an author of jokes using volumes of wit, novel jokes, eye-in-book humour,...
