

Santa Rosa in the Nation s Limelight (Paperback)

By Daniel B Flores

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Santa Rosa in the Nation s Limelight is about two events in Santa Rosa s rich and colorful past that made news throughout the United States. The first event was the coming of the Chicago Rock Island railroad into the area. The second event was a national cross country marathon foot race that was held in 1928. The race, dubbed the Bunion Derby by the national press, drew attention across the United States during its duration. The first locomotive of the railroad entered Santa Rosa on December 26, 1901. It would have to wait another two weeks before it could connect west of the Pecos River with the El Paso Northeastern railroad which came into the area from Carrizozo. The driving of the last spike meant the Santa Rosa was now connected by rail to El Paso in the south and Chicago in the northeast. The Bunion Derby chose Santa Rosa as one of the stopping points in the race route. The race participants entered Santa Rosa on the afternoon of March 31 amidst much local fanfare. The runners had come to Santa...
