Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Buzzards Bay, Mass Bay there are more than 2000 sailing craft, you will readily see how popular a sport is yachting. It is a pastime that is especially popular with women of the Buzzards Bay shore colonies. Almost every little community has its yacht club and there are several women in each of these flourishing organizations who are skillful sailors. Races between the various classes of craft on the Bay are regular weekly events of the summer life at the resorts. There are special classes in these regattas for boats sailed by women. Cups or pennants are the prizes for which these races are sailed and proud indeed is she who achieves one of these trophies as a token of her victory. It will be listed among her most cherished possessions, and when she returns to her home in the autumn, this souvenir of her skill as a sailor is sure to occupy a prominent place in her boudoir. Every day, clear or cloudy, the Bay is dotted with hundreds of boats, making an exceedingly charming sight. The most popular type of sailboat on Buzzards Bay is the center board, jib and mainsail craft, or knockabout as it is popularly termed. This boat has moderate sail area, is very weatherly, safe and fast. To cruise over the Bay in a knockabout is an extremely pleasant occupation of a summer's day. This placid Bay with its smooth beaches is a summer paradise for children. It is landlocked and for that reason perfectly safe from sudden squalls and violent winds. Beaches of hard, white sand, gently sloping, afford ideal bathing places for children. There is no surf or treacherous undertow. The temperature of...
