Excerpt: .deliver to him the tomatoes as therein provided. In this suit the plaintiff seeks to recover from the defendant damages for said breach, that is, for the non-delivery of the tomatoes according to the terms and provisions of the contract existing between them. The defendant, while admitting the execution and delivery of the agreement, insists that he committed no breach thereof, but complied with its requirements until the plaintiff himself violated the agreement in such a manner as to justify the defendant in rescinding the contract and discontinuing the further delivery of tomatoes. This contention of the defendant makes it necessary for us to charge you briefly upon the law respecting the rescission of contracts, and particularly what acts, words and conduct of one party will constitute in law a repudiation of the agreement which will warrant the other party in rescinding the same....
