RECOMMENDED READING: 600 CLASSICS REVIEWED (HARDBACK)

Grey House Publishing Inc, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This new edition offers expanded coverage of 100 classics not previously covered, and for the first time, includes free online access. Recommended Reading: 600 Classics Reviewed covers 600 noteworthy works that have endured the test of time and continue to hold the interest of general readers and literary specialists year after year. This brand-new second edition of this renowned reference work contains 100 more titles than the previous 1995 edition and is perfect for high school, public and academic literary collections of all sizes. Each review approaches one work of literature-fiction, nonfiction, poetry, or drama-and introduces brief, ready-reference data for the user s convenience: title, author, date of first publication, type of work, and a brief abstract of the book s content or impact. Every 300-word review provides readers with an idea of the work s importance in the history of literature and critical thinking. All reviews are arranged alphabetically by book title, and the book concludes with both title and author indexes. While the selection of the included works is based on those that continue to hold the interest of both general readers and literary scholars year after year, such a selection cannot hope to define a literary canon-and give rise to discussion of omitted works. Recommended Reading: 600 Classics Reviewed was designed to lead readers to works of literary value and creating a place to start in any reader s quest of exploring great literature. New works highlighted in this edition include: The Book Thief by Markus Zusak; A Brief History of Time by Stephen Hawking; The Complete Sherlock Holmes by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle; Cutting for Stone by Abraham Verghese; A Handmaid s Tale by Margaret...
