McGraw-Hill Education - Europe, United States, 2005. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Shows you how to use the success secrets of Steve Jobs to create a stylistic and technological revolution in any company. The computer industry has seen significant losses over the past few years, but one company has emerged with unprecedented profitability. The Apple Way examines how the company combines innovative, integrated product development, exceptional customer support, a high-performance corporate culture, sleek packaging, and cutting-edge marketing to keep the business ahead of the curve and on top of the game. This insightful book divulges how the company's steps - and missteps - have led to its continuing evolution, and what lessons you can learn from Apple.
