Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Student s Handbook to the University and Colleges of Oxford The University of Oxford is a body corporate, under the title of The Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford. As such it has the power of holding property, of appointing its own officers, and of making regulations for its internal management. It has also other powers, or privileges, which are not incidental to its character as a corporation: the most important of these are that of exercising jurisdiction, both civil and criminal, over its members, and that of returning representatives to Parliament. Its Legislature consists of four bodies: (1) The Hebdomadal Council, which has the initiative in all matters of legislation, and which consists of eighteen elected members, together with the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors; (2) The House of Convocation, of which, subject to certain regulations as to the payment of fees and the retaining of their names on the Register, all persons are members who have taken the degree of Master of Arts, or of Doctor of Civil Law or rine; (3) The Congregation of the University, which consists of the Professors, Examiners, and other official persons, and also of such members of the House of Convocation as reside within the limits of the University for not less than twenty v, in each year; (4) The Ancient House of Congregation, which consists of all Masters Arts and Doctors of Divinity, Civil Law, and Medicine, of less than two years standing, together with all Heads of Colleges and Halls, and certain other official persons. The exact constitution and functions of theses several bodies is defined in the University Statutes, and in the...
