

The Best Present I Ever Had (Paperback)

By MR William F Polden Sr

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a Christmas story about a little girl that gets to fly on Pegasus to the north pole and help deliver a few late requests for Santa. All goes well, until the last house. She peers in on a small crippled boy, who only wants a bike with no training wheels. She only has one present to wish, and one wish left. But Santa said she do right by the wishes as an idea struck her. To wish his body back to normal. Did it work? Why she back in her own yard? Where s Santa s magic bag? And what about the crippled boy, Tommy? And how does she know his name? Was this all a dream? Enjoy this magical ride as Purehearted Brenda Sue learns and shares her lessons on how to create a true wish. This story is about the miricals of god by the love for one another and that all things are possible within that love.
