There came into many a burgher s pate A text which says, that Heaven s gate Opes to the rich at as easy rate As the needle s eye takes a camel in! The Mayor sent east, west, north, and south, To offer the Piper by word of mouth, Wherever it was men s lot to find him, Silver and gold to his heart s content, If he d only return the nay he went, And bring the children behind him. But when they saw t was a lost endeavor, And Piper and dancers were gone forever, They made a decree that lawyers never Should think their records dated duly If, after the day of the month and year, These words did not as well appear, And so long after what happened here On the Twenty-second of July, Thirteen hundred and Seventy-six And the belter in memory to fix The place of the children s last rcreat, --They called it the Pied Piper s Street, --Where any one playing on pipe or tabor Was sure for the future to lose his labor. Nor suffered they hostelry or tavern To shock with mirth a street so solemn; But opposite the place of the cavern They wrote the story on a column, And on the great church window painted The same, to make the world acquainted How their children were stolen away; And there it stands to this very day. And I must...
