Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite books. It is written in easy terms and never hard to understand. It has been designed in an exceedingly easy way and it is only after I finished reading this publication that I, in fact, changed the way I think.

Koinonia Associates, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .P. Mark Taylor spent seventeen years of teaching mathematics at the junior high, high school, community college, and university levels. He spent another 12 years studying mathematics education, including seven years as a professor of teacher education at the University of Tennessee. His most important experiences, however, have been in personal life. Two birth-children and two adoptions later there are a total of six children providing rich fodder for telling the stories in this book.
