THE AKRON STORY CIRCLE PROJECT: RETHINKING RACE IN CLASSROOM AND COMMUNITY (PAPERBACK)

University of Akron Press, 2017. Paperback Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book
Cultures around the world have long employed storytelling to transmit important values and beliefs and to build community. Further, some research has indicated that individuals retain more from stories than other forms of information transmission like lectures. The pedagogical use of storytelling might have even more relevance in our digital society in which communication is shorter and less personal. Using ideas and practices generated by John O...
