By David Scofield Wilson, Angus Kress Gillespie, Angus Kress Gillespie

University of Tennessee Press. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Rooted in America: Foodlore Popular Fruits Vegetables, David Scofield Wilson, Angus Kress Gillespie, Angus Kress Gillespie, From the exotic appeal of oranges to the joy of home-grown tomatoes, many fruits and vegetables have come to play key roles in our gardening, cooking, and eating habits. This book explores ten familiar cultivars apples, bananas, corn, cranberries, peppers, oranges, pumpkins, tobacco, tomatoes, and watermelons to show how they have become intimately entwined with the American way of life. Through recipes and superstitions, jokes and urban legends, history and advertising, these foods have become unmistakably part of our popular culture. We might attend a county fair and see a blue ribbon awarded to a prize pumpkin, then take in a movie that evening where we see a cigarette dangling from Humphrey Bogart's lips or even witness The Attack of the Killer Tomatoes. Whether native or exotic, consumed daily or associated with festivities, these common comestibles have become food for thought as well as for sustenance. Rooted in America examines how these foods express our cultural values and carry meanings that derive from the contexts in which we place them. It offers...
